v.

DEANDRE NORELS JR.

No. 22 CR 450

Hon. Thomas M. Durkin

PROTECTIVE ORDER GOVERNING DISCOVERY

This matter coming before the court, and the Court being fully advised and pursuant to Fed. R. Crim.P. 16(d) and Title 18, United States Code, Section 3771 it is hereby ordered:

1. The materials exchanged by the Parties, provided by the United States, or produced by third parties, in preparation for, or in connection with the proceedings in this case contains particularly sensitive information (“Sensitive Information”). Sensitive information includes, but is not limited to: (1) non-party names, addresses, dates of birth, driver’s license numbers, social security numbers, and other identifying information, including of the victim, the victim’s family, and the victim’s friends; (2) statements by, and reports from interviews of, individuals who have been or are cooperating with the government’s investigation; and (3) any information that might disclose the identity of a cooperating individual. All materials containing Sensitive Information (the “Materials”) including those previously produced to defendant in this case are subject to this protective order and may be used by defendant and defendant’s counsel (defined as counsel of record in this case) solely in connection with the defense of this case, and for no other purpose, and in connection with no other proceeding without further order of this Court.

2. Defendant, defendant's counsel and the government shall not disclose the materials or their contents directly or indirectly to any person or entity other than persons employed to assist in the defense, persons who are interviewed as potential witnesses, counsel for potential witnesses, and other persons to whom the Court may authorize disclosure (collectively, "authorized persons"). Potential witnesses and their counsel may be shown copies of the materials as necessary to prepare the defense, but may not retain copies without prior permission of the Court.

3. Certain material disclosed or to be disclosed may contain particularly sensitive information. These materials shall be plainly marked as sensitive prior to disclosure. No such materials, or the information contained therein, may be disclosed to any persons other than defendant, counsel for defendant, persons employed to assist the defense, or the person to whom the sensitive information solely and directly pertains, without prior notice to the government and the entity/individual producing the documents and authorization from the Court. Absent prior permission from the Court, information marked as sensitive shall not be included in any public filing with the Court, and instead shall be submitted under seal (except if the defendant chooses to include in the public document sensitive information relating solely and directly to the defendant). If the defendant maintains that some or all of the material disclosed does not contain particularly sensitive information, he may petition the Court to remove that designation from it

4. Defendant, defendant's counsel, and authorized persons shall not copy or reproduce the materials except in order to provide copies of the materials for use in connection with this case by defendant, defendant's counsel, and authorized persons. Such copies and reproductions shall be treated in the same manner as the original materials.

5. Defendant, defendant's counsel, and authorized persons shall not disclose any notes or records of any kind that they make in relation to the contents of the materials, other than to authorized persons, and all such notes or records are to be treated in the same manner as the original materials.

6. Before providing materials to an authorized person, defense counsel must provide the authorized person with a copy of this Order and require the authorized person to sign a statement acknowledging that the authorized person has received a copy of and reviewed this Order, and has agreed to be bound by its terms and conditions subject to sanctioning by the Court for any violations of this Order. Defense counsel shall maintain a copy of the signed statement of each authorized person for a period of twelve months after the conclusion of all stages of this case and shall provide copies of each signed statement to the Court for in camera review upon a showing by the government that there is a reasonable basis for such review.

7. Upon conclusion of all stages of this case, all of the materials and all copies made thereof shall be disposed of in one of three ways, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. The materials may be (1) destroyed; (2) returned to the United States; or (3) retained in defense counsel's case file. The Court may require a certification as to the disposition of any such materials. In the event that the materials are retained by defense counsel, the restrictions of this Order continue in effect for as long as the materials are so maintained, and the materials may not be disseminated or used in connection with any other matter without further order of the Court.

8. To the extent any material is produced by the United States to defendant or defendant's counsel by mistake, the United States shall have the right to request the return of the material and shall do so in writing. Within five days of the receipt of such a request, defendant and/or defendant's counsel shall either seek permission from the Court to retain the material or return all such material if in hard copy, and in the case of electronic materials, shall certify in writing that all copies of the specified material have been deleted from any location in which the material was stored.

9. The restrictions set forth in this Order do not apply to documents that are or become part of the public court record, including documents that have been received in evidence at other trials, nor do the restrictions in the Order limit defense counsel in the use of discovery materials in judicial proceeding in this case, except that any documents filed by any party which attaches or otherwise discloses specially identified sensitive information as described in Paragraph 3, above, shall be filed under seal to the extent necessary to protect such information, absent prior permission from the Court.

10. Nothing contained in this Order shall preclude any party from applying to this Court for further relief or for modification of any provision hereof.
